Editorial Review

Review
Javier Marias writes with elegance, with wit and with masterful suspense, and yet for all this assuranse, it is the profound ontological uncertainty at the heart of his work which makes it at once so unsettling and so true. -- Michael Kerrigan, The Times Literary Supplement

About the Author
Javier Marias (Madrid, Spain, 1951) has become an international literary phenomenon. His books have been translated into twenty-two languages. More than two million copies of his books have been sold world-wide, and he could possibly be the most honored author in the world.
