From the Back Cover
"An illustrated poetry anthology over 750 pages long for $29.95? Even first time poetry readers won't be frightened off by this book." —David Budbill

"The Giant Book of Poetry is bursting at the seams with the kind of poems that people need to be reading." —Billy Collins

"When's the last time someone released an affordable single volume anthology covering ancient, classical, modern, world, and contemporary poetry? The time is right for this book." —Mark Cox

"Part anthology, part textbook, The Giant Book of Poetry brings together a chorus of voices, from an anonymous poet writing in 4000 BC through poets of the 21st century. The book presents poems that are immediately accessible, at least in part, to a reader unused to poetry, as a way to encourage newcomers to the art. But an experienced reader will find much to enjoy here, browsing among the familiar (Shakespeare, Dickinson, Masters, Frost, Hughes, Collins), and the less so (Southey, Hood, Stetson, Lax, Schwartz). Giant, indeed, and with something for everyone, The Giant Book of Poetry is a wonderful resource." —Molly Fisk

"The Giant Book of Poetry is the perfect introductory anthology for new poetry readers." —Robert Kinsley

"This book is the result of a massive amount of love and work by its editor, William Roetzheim, and the result is a comprehensive collection of many of the most important poems and poets of all time. It belongs in the collection of every poetry lover." —Mark Strand
