The Heavenly Man (Remarkable True Story of Chinese Christian Brother Yun) By Paul Hattaway

This is the intensely dramatic story of how God took a young, half-starved boy from a poor village in Henan Province and used him mightily to preach the gospel, despite horrific opposition. Brother Yun is one of China's house church leaders, a man who despite his relative youth has suffered prolonged torture and imprisonment for his faith. Instead of focusing on the many miracles or experiences of suffering, however, Yun prefers to emphasise the character and beauty of Jesus. This astonishing book will form a watershed in your spiritual life.

Editorial Review

Review
Amazing story and highly recommended for church libraries. (Church Libraries)

About the Author
Brother Yun (Liu Zhenying) is an internationally recognized speaker and author (LivingWater) who currently lives in Germany. Paul Hattaway is an expert on the Chinese church and the author of Operation China, Back to Jerusalem, and Project Pearl.

From AudioFile
The world can do nothing to a Christian who has no fear of man, Brother Yun says as he tells the world about his trials as a leader in the Chinese house church movement. Brother Yun's testimony is read in a modest yet firm voice by Cristofer Jean. While soft-spoken, Jean conveys all the passion and pain in Yun's life as he hid from Chinese authorities or languished in prison, at times facing torture. Jeany Park reads his wife's accounts with similar grace, and Grover Gardner delivers the introduction with authority. Yun's determination to find God's message through his suffering brings a rare force to his message. J.A.S. © AudioFile 2009, Portland, Maine
